

Tyndale Benefice

Wotton-under-Edge with Ozleworth
North Nibley, Alderley (including Tresham)

Sunday, 11th October 2020
Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity

Services:

10.15am St. Mary's Morning Prayer

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

God, our judge and saviour, teach us to be open to your truth
and to trust in your love, that we may live each day
with confidence in the salvation which is given through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Principal Readings:

1st Reading: Isaiah 25.1-9

O LORD, you are my God;
I will exalt you, I will praise your name;
for you have done wonderful things,
plans formed of old, faithful and sure.
For you have made the city a heap,
the fortified city a ruin;
the palace of aliens is a city no more,
it will never be rebuilt.
Therefore strong peoples will glorify you;
cities of ruthless nations will fear you.
For you have been a refuge to the poor,
a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat.
When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter
rainstorm,
the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place,
you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds;
the song of the ruthless was stilled.

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make

for all peoples

a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines,

of rich food filled with marrow, of well-
matured wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death for ever.

Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears
from all faces,

and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

It will be said on that day,

Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him,
so that he might save us.

This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

2nd Reading: Philippians 4.1-9

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice.
Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.
Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel: Matthew 22.1-14

Once more Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them.
The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet."

Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

Reflection from Sue Plant

Today's Gospel reading reminds us that God invites us all to come into his presence. Often as church members we have a feeling of entitlement and expectation of being invited. Once we are part of the gang we think we can relax. Like the invited guests who were so distracted by their everyday lives they ignored the invitation, so it is for us. If we refuse to come we will miss out, and it is our own fault.

It is interesting to think about the excuses given in the parable because daily work commitments are not a bad thing in themselves. However, all of us miss out sometimes by concentrating on daily work to the exclusion of other things. We spend a great deal of time on what is passing away, ignoring the eternal. There is no compulsion from God, so prayer and meeting with him, maybe through care of other people, can be low on our agenda. In this passage Jesus does not dwell on punishment, but rather points out God's sadness at what we are missing.

In Philippians Paul is writing to one of the first Christian congregations in Europe. Many of the members of that church were Gentiles (once outside but now included in the people of God). They, like the outsiders in the parable, could not say they were worthy of an invitation, but the point is that they were all welcomed.

However, once we accept the invitation expectations are laid upon us. We need to remember that our inclusion is never automatic. That is why the man who did not bother to wear his special robe was so harshly treated in the story. We have to do our bit by welcoming others and living in such a way that they can see God's values in our behaviour.

O God, at whose table we are no longer strangers;
may we not refuse your call through pride or fear, but approach with confidence to find our home in you through Jesus Christ, Amen.

Janet Morley All Desires Known

Love and God bless, Sue

Revd Iain Marchant Memorial Bike Ride – James Marchant (Iain's son) and Revd Peter Marsh are cycling to raise money for Christian Aid – a charity very close to Iain's heart. The ride is the Forest of Dean Challenge, 62 miles long with 1676m of vertical climbing including some 1 in 4 (25%) climbs. Peter has test cycled the route & he can verify that the Forest of Dean is extremely lumpy! The fund raiser page is: <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/jamespeter2020> (cheques and cash to the parish office please).

Thank you to all who donated food for Harvest – In North Nibley, along with the school collection, they filled the back of an estate car with their generosity, which has been added to the Chapel contribution to be given to the Foodbank. In Wotton, there were 50 carrier bags of food handed over to the Foodbank, a fantastic collection.

A prayer for the Vacancy

Lord God,

Thank you for the appointment of the Reverend Rachel Cook as our Vicar (designate). We pray for her and her family as she brings her ministry as Chaplain at RAF Waddington to a close and prepares to move to this Benefice.

We pray for the peoples in the parishes of the Tyndale Benefice as we prepare for Rachel's arrival. Help us to grow in love and care for all as we face changes in society and work patterns due to COVID19.

We continue to pray for our clergy, reader and church wardens in their work for the parishes in these unusual times. Show us all how to grow in faith and in our relationship with you through our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We ask this prayer in Jesus' name. Amen.
